THE YELLOW DEATH.

A Vile Lie Disproved—The Negroes True to their Trust--The Blessing of the Frost.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—The Post yesterday published an interview with Dr. Ramsey, one of the physicians returned from Memphis, in which he stated that he had been authentically informed that white women have to take negro men for nurses, or go without. That such negro men nurses have taken advantage of their helpless victims. Mr. Keating, editor of the Memphis Appeal, having had his attention called to the statement, pronounces it utterly untrue, and adds that no man, white or black, would be allowed to breathe a second breath after such a crime became known. No such crime has been committed. White women have not been reduced to the necessity of taking negro men for nurses. The statement is a libel upon the negroes of Memphis, all honor to them. They have done their duty; they have acted by us nobly, as policemen, as soldiers, as well as nurses. They have responded to every call made upon them, in proportion to their numbers, quite as promptly as the whites. A few of them gave some trouble about food at one time, but they were at the moment suppressed by a company of citizen soldiers of their own color. The colored people of Memphis, as a body, deserve well of their white fellow-citizens. We appreciate and are proud of them.

GRENADA, MISS., Sept. 14.—Dr. Woolfolk, of Paducah, died yesterday. His illness was of one week, six other deaths to day, and 2 new cases are reported. Dr. Veasey, of New Orleans, and Dr. Henry Stone, of Natchez, are the only physcians. They are going night and day. A slight frost last night.

GARDINER, ME., Sept. 14.—A movement is on foot to raise 1,000 tons of ice among the ice merchants and companies in this vicinity, for the fever sufferers. Six hundred tons have been secured.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 13.—The weather has changed, it is feared for the worst. The nights are cool and the days are warm. The number of new cases may reasonably be expected to continue large. Forty-six deaths are reported up to noon—ninety-one for the twenty-four hours ending at noon. Death is taking many of the best citizens. Col. S. Knowlton, acting post master, died this morning, also J. C. Ward. Eugene D. White, son of Rev. George White, Ernest Cleaves, J. J. Sears, Rip Gates, Miss M. B. Page, Phillip Erbe, Rev. J. T. Early, A. T. Thompson, Mrs. Halste, mother of Halste Brothers, and Horace H. Briggs are very low.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept., 14.—A Canton, Mississippi, dispatch says the total number of cases to date is three hundred and fifty-three; deaths fifty-four. New cases in the last twenty-four hours are 34, deaths 7. Dr. Cage, one of our four physicians, was taken this morning. A hospital has been established. We are managing the fever the best we can with the limited number of physicians and nurses. Thanks to friends everywhere for liberal aid.

CAIRO, Ill., Sept. 14—No new cases of fever have been reported. A heavy frost is reported in the low bottom lands around the city.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14—A matinee at the California Theatre, for the fever sufferers, netted $2,700.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept 14.—Three hundred and nine new cases, fifty-nine deaths,

BATON ROUGE, Sept. 14—The official statement of cases reported for the twenty-four hours ending this morning at 9 o'clock are deaths one, new cases forty-two. Total deaths to date 27. Total cases four hundred and thirty-three. Signed J. W. Dupree, M. D. Health officer.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The Southern Relief Committee of the Chamber of Commerce decided to send to New Orleans the following: $3,000 to the Young Men's Christian Association, $2,000 to the Catholic Sisters of Mercy, $1000 to the Hebrew Benevolent Society, and $2,000 to the Peabody Relief Association. They also send $1,000 to the Howards at Holly Springs, $3,000 to the Memphis Relief Association, $1,000 to the Catholics, $500 to the Hebrew Benevolent Society and $500 to the Sisters of St. Mary, at Memphis.

Destructive Floods.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Dispatches from various points in Virginia and West Virginia, Ohio, Peensylvania, and as far north as Canada, give accounts of destructive gales, accompanied by heavy rains, causing extensive damage to railroads, canals and other property and in some instances loss of life. Much anxiety is felt in Richmond, Va., owing to reports from Lynchburg that the water in James River is rising rapidly. A number of merchants doing business in the lower prat of the former city, near the river are removing goods, in anticipation of a swamping freshet. The Staunton river bride and Virginia Midland railroad between Lynchburg and Danville and two bridges over Roanoke river between Salem and Big Spring and one at Dry Hollow on the Atlantic Mississippi and Ohio Railroad have been washed away. A dispatch from Covington, on the C. & O. Railroad, says the water is higher than at any time before except in November last.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 14.—Advices from points in Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania indicate that the storm is past. It is the most severe storm experienced for years. On the line of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad serious damage was inflicted. A fireman, brakesman and an engineer were killed by washouts. The bridge on the Pan Handle route is washed away. A freight train plunged into the stream and the engineer and fireman have not been seen since. No trains passed Steubenville on the Pan Handle, Pittsburg, Wheeling and Kentucky, or Cleveland and Pittsburg roads. The Ohio river at Steubenville rose sixteen feet in twenty-four hours. Eight inches of rain fell in the same time, and at Youngstown, Ohio, seven inches. At 3 o'clock yesterday morning the residents on the streets in the vicinity of the Mahoning river were being removed from their dwellings in boats. On Mahoning avenue the water was eight feet deep. Several small dwellings were swept away like drift wood. The county commissioners state that the loss to the county in ruined bridges will reach $100,000.

At Mechanicsville, near Painesville, Ohio, a dam gave way, and a number of houses were inundated. At Salem a bridge fell with an engine and two cars upon it. The engineer and a brakesman were seriously injured.

Near Alliance, Richard Teeters, engineer of a coal train, had both legs broken, and the fireman was severely injured, by running into a chasm left by a bridge which was swept away. The Kanawha River is higher than in the flood of 1861, and is still rising, overflowing a portion of Charlestown, West Virginia, and the Kanawha Valley, sweeping with it the new steamer Advance, and numberless lumber rafts, &c.

The Country's Crops.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Returns to the Department of Agriculture, indicate an average of eighty-seven in condition of wheat crop against ninety-two in Sept. 1877. The reduction is mostly due to the disasters to the spring crop in the Northwest. Preliminary examinations of the returns on an average indicate the breadth sown in 1878 as about one-sixth greater than in 1877. This will more than compensate for the loss from the decline in the condition, and probably bring up the yield to the popular estimate of four hundred million bushels.

The average condition of the corn crop is 92, against 96 in August; slightly above condition in September, 1877, which was 91. The crop held its own in the Northern portion of the Atlantic slope, and on the Pacific coast, slightly improved. In the States north of the Ohio it fell off 2 per cent; in the States west of the Mississippi and in the Southern States as a whole, it fell off about 3 per cent. Of 721 counties reporting, 252 give a full aveaage, 378 above, 391 below.

Infuriated Mussulmans.

By Cable to the News.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 14. — The Mussulmans of the surrounding country threaten to make a descent upon Erzeroum, to plunder the Christians, when the Russian troops leave the city. The Armenian Archbishop of Erzeroum telegraphed Mr. Layard and M. Tournier, the English and French Ambassadors at Constantinople, asking that steps be taken for the protection of the Christians.

The Cuba Sugar Crop.

Cable to the News.

HAVANA, Sept. 9.—A Cienfugos newspaper publishes a report, said to be of the most reliable character, to the effect that this year's sugar crop amounted to 525,485 tons, of which quantity about 100,000 tons were consumed in Island. The balance was mostly exported to the United States.

Obstinate Cretans.

By Cable to the News.

ATHENS, Sept. 14.—The mission of Moukhtar Pasha, sent to Crete to pacify the Island, failed. The Cretans rejected all proposals made by the Porte, and refused to enter into any arrangement looking to the establishment of reforms in the administration.

Catawba County.

Correspondence of the News.

NEWTON, September 12.

Catawba was the first Court held by Judge Gudger. He and solicitor Adams did so well that everybody was pleased, and they are commended by all.

The Judiciary of North Carolina will lose nothing by Judge Gudger being called to the bench, he wears the ermine with honor to himself and to the bench.

Adams promises to make a splendid solicitor the fact is, he is that now, though young and a beginner.

Newton has sent $75 to the sufferers in the Mississippi valley.

Butler as a Reformer.

In his speech at North Adams, Massachusetts, last Saturday, Butler said:

"I do not ask you to support me as a Republican, I do not ask you to support me as a Democrat, I do not ask you to support me as a Greenbacker. I do not ask you to support me as a laboring man, or upon any issue at all this year, except the issue of cleaning this State Government, and washing down the steps of the State House, so that a man's feet won't stick as he walks down."

But who shall wash Butler?

Howard, the Philanthropist.

New Orleans City Item.

The prominence of the Howard Association of the infected cities has caused many inquiries as to the origin of the name, and it is surprising to witness the general public ignorance in regard to it.

John Howard, the philanthropist, from whom the Association derives its name, was born in Hockney, near London, about 1726. From his father, who had been engaged in trade, he inherited a considerable fortune. In 1786, the year of the great earthquake at Lisbon, urged by motives of benovolence, as well as of curiosity, he set sail for that city. On this voyage his vessel was taken by a French privateer, and he was carried into the interior, where he sufiered imprisonment for some time. The hardships which he there underwent, combined with the knowledge of prisons and the miseries of prison life, which he acquired as a county Sheriff in 1773 and afterwards, determined him in devoting himself to prison reform. His life thereafter is but a chronicle of his journeys throughout the United Kingdom and the continent, in which he visited the principal prisons and hospitals. His chief work is "An account of the Lazarettos in Europe, etc., with remarks on the present state of the prisons in Great Britain and Ireland" (1789). He died January 20, 1790, at Kherson, in the South of Russia, from having caught infection from a fevered patient for whom he had prescribed.

The fame of Howard is peculiar. He is remembered not so much for his talents as for that devotion to his suffering fellow men, in which he expended his fortune and his life. Hence the proprity of naming associations devoted to benevolent assistance of the sick after him.

There is a new Evangeline. Years ago a pretty German lass plighted her troth with a young soldier who was just starting with Von Moltke to give little Napoleon his baptism of fire. When peace came the lover still kept away. Pretty Barbara waited month after month and then learning that her lover had been seen in America she left the Rhine village and crossed the Atlantic. She wandered here and there, grew paler, haggard, wild at the eyes. Last Friday a Chicago Judge pronounced Barbara insane. She was lifted into a van and taken to the County Asylum to die.

THE PLOT AGAINST RAYNER.

Nice Little Scheme of Malcontents Broken Up.

Washington Post.

About a month ago the Cincinnati Commercial and some very radical New York papers contained a series of special dispatches to the effect that Judge Kenneth Rayner, the solicitor of the Treasury, was to be bounced as soon as Secretary Sherman returned, on account of a number of "eccentric decisions," all of which, they alleged, partook strongly of a Southern leaning, even to the extent of a perversion of law. The Post has closely watched the progress of the conspiracy—for conspiracy it was—and yesterday, in order to bring it to a head, it gave currency to the rumor that Judge Ray, of New Orleans, had been offered the place. The publication of this pretty generally circulated report had the effect of clearing up the whole matter. Judge Ray at once called on the Secretary and informed him that, whether true or not, he could not and would not accept the position; stating further that Judge Rayner, more than almost any other man, possessed the confidence of and gave great satisfaction to the Southern people, without regard to party. It is only fair to Mr. Sherman to state that he expressed himself as wholly unaware of any intention to disturb Judge Rayner, and expressly disavowed being a party to the proceeding in any of its stages. As this is creditable in the highest degree to Judge Ray and also to Secretary Sherman, the Post does not hesitate to give it the widest publicity. The movement against Rayner originated with a few subordinates, who found the old gentleman a stumbling block in their path, and industriously endeavored to engineer a movement prejudicial to his interest. As it has failed, we shall probably hear no more of it. Judge Rayner is probably the best indorsed man who ever held a subordidate office. The entire Congressional representation of twelve states, joined to six hundred members of the bar, recommended him for a Judgeship of the Court of Claims, but the exigencies of Louisiana politics required that Judge Hunt should be appointed. As the next best thing, Hayes gave him the solicitorship of the Treasury; and the veteran jurist and legislator is now hard at work twelve hour a day to earn his living, after having lost a fortune of nearly half a million of dollars through the mutations of war.

American Kindergarten.

Richmond Dispatch.

During the past summer the American Kindergarten received a fresh stimulus in the interest shown by the North Carolinans in this mode of instruction. Miss E. M. Coe, the originator of the American system, with a competent assistant, accepting the invitation to go to the Old North State, Chapel Hill University threw open its doors, and daily four hundred teachers, from all portions of the State, received instruction in her normal class. A flourishing Kindergarten was also formed. The enthusiasm was unbounded and we wish the knowledge could be spread far and wide, so that all could realize this great blessing which has come for the little ones. It continually opens up new beauties; cultivates harmoniously the three powers—intellect, feeling and acting. This is illustrated by the gifts—the first series leading the mind into realms of thought; the second, offering new features, cultivates the sense for the beautiful; the third furnishes practical work. Their simplest studies are so interwoven with these occupations that each day's work forms a harmonious whole and is impressed upon the mind of the pupil. Thus they gradually progress through a three-years' course, when the foundation is laid for the higher branches of study.

She Has a Better Title.

Fort Wayne Sentinel.

The Presidential junketing party is on its travels through the northwest, and the Associated Press gives elaborate reports of its progress. It appears that Mrs. Hayes is received with great enthusiam, but the rest of party meet with much coldness.

Solomon Garner, who lives four miles north of Greencastle, Ind., was last Thursday mowing an upland meadow on his farm. Suddenly horses and machine sank into the earth. Garner sprang from his seat and with the help of men who were working near by rescued one horse, but the other horse sank twenty feet into the ground and was lost. The sound of running water was heard.

A True Union.

Hon. Beverly Tucker, of Virginia, writes to the New York World, depricating the sectional feelings engendered and fostered by political parties in this country. In the course of his letter he says: "Upon the eve of the great political campaign opening up before us, does it not behoove the people everywhere to put their unmistakable stamp of reprobation and telling censure upon a repetition of the unholy work of incitation of section against section, which has been going on for years, and bid it stop right here? This fraud upon truth, for political effect, has been perpetrated long enough. The people of the North and South do not hate each other. Else why this wail from the land of the scourge and pestilence, and the ready response it has found in the sympathizing breasts of a Northern brotherhood? In my late visit to your great commercial emporium—so cosmopolitan in its character and noble in its charities—as a Southern man I have been profoundly impressed and deeply touched by the manifestations of tender consideration, in all classes, for the suffering, stricken communities of our Southern cities. Already more than a hundred thousand dollars have gone forth to the scenes of devastation from New York alone, while Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago, Cleveland, and other towns throughout the north have spoken right out their heartfelt sympathy, and given substantial effect to it by generous contributions to the plague invested cities of the South. And the work still goes bravely on! I heard, too, the frequent supplications from the chancel and the pulpit to the "Lord of life and death, of sickness and health," for the arrest of the march of the fatal scourge, the recovery of the sick, the spiritual consolation of the dying and the comfort of the broken-hearted living—and all the people cried amen!

Men and women in the South in whose natures are tabernacled generous impulses, will never forget these kindly ministrations in this dark hour of disease and death. Not a Southern hand that will not be reached forth in grateful acknowledgment and heartfelt appreciation of the spontaneous sympathy and timely aid of our Northern brothers. They have indeed proved that "blood was thicker than water." Let us hope, then, that this wholesome frame of mind may not be disturbed by another era of maddened crimination and recrimination, and let the South especially lay this lesson to heart, and keep it constantly in her memory: That when her own were a-hungered and thirsty and naked and sick, and near the prison of death, they were kindly ministered unto by her Northern brethren of a common nationality. Nor let the men of the North cloud their noble motives and stultify the generous deeds they have done and are doing in the cause of a humane philanthropy, by countenancing a political canvass characterized by acrimonious abuse of their Southern brethren. All this is most unnatural and unprofitable. As sure as God is true, it is wrong, and has had much to do with the general distress of the country. There can be no common prosperity in the absence of a vital community of interest in each other. The battle axe must not only be buried, but the sword and the spear must be turned into the plowshare and the pruning hook, and the calumet of peace must be smoked throughout the whole length and breadth of the land. Let Congress leave off "politics" and give us wise and peaceful legislation, and then, and not till then, shall we see a truly united people, restored to the inestimable blessings of happiness and prosperity.

NOTES.

The Radical demand for "a strong government" has been intensified to a shriek by the recent elections.

Orders for 950,000 standard silver dollars were received at the Treasury on Friday. The silver movement begins to thrive in good earnest.

William Shakspeare is running for constable in a Michigan village. Yet this is the man who said, "Fling away ambition, by that sin fell the angels."

While the President is traveling about the country, he might keep his eyes open and see if he can find where civil service reform is spending its vacation.

Although the political commotion in Maine seems like a tornado, it is but a gentle zephyr compared with the wild blast that will prostrate the Radicals in Indiana and Ohio next month. "Then let the hurricane roar."

A careful merchant in St. Louis refused to ship a lot of goods to New Orleans for fear of catching the yellow fever. A cautious Burlington man is afraid to write to his brother in Memphis, for the same reason.

A man may sneer at a woman all he will because she can't sharpen a lead-pencil, but she has the smile on him when he stands holding an unoccupied suspender button in his hand, and wondering whether it will hurt less to pull the needle out of his thumb the same way it went in, or push it on through.

The Awful Peril Man of the New York Tribune has evolved his theory after forty-eight hours of travail. He finds that the result of the election in Maine is the destruction of the Democratic party! Well, all we have to say is that the Democratic party fairly hankers after a thousand years of such destruction. Please destroy us often.

Eugene Hale had a brave word to say, as he was borne from the field on an ambulance. It was that, after all, the Maine election was a mere skirmish and the party would soon get over it. The best thing about the skirmish was that Hale happened to be standing on the skirmish line and stopped one of the bullets. His body was never put to better use.

Yesterday two grammarians were wrangling on Jefferson street, one contending that it was only proper to say, "my wages is high," while the other noisily insisted that the correct thing was "my wages are high." Finally they stopped a day laborer, and submitted the question to him. "Which do you say, 'your wages is high," or 'your wages are high?" "Oh, to the devil wid yer nonsense," he said, resuming his pick, "yer naythen ov ye right; me wages is low, thunderin' low."

Plague spots: Grenada is without a city government, and burglaries are frequent. A dry goods store has been robbed of articles worth $1,000, and a private residence of $500 in valuables. A bank containing $6,000 to the credit of the sufferers, is closed and unguarded, the cashier being sick. An English setter followed his master's coffin to the grave, showed signs of grief, refused his food, would not leave the cemetery, and died near the grave of his lost friend. In one of the Memphis banks a relief committee deposited $5 000 and fled; the money could not be drawn except on their order, and they could not be found. Well known people in New Orleans, sick of the fever, have their names suppressed out of consideration for the feelings of absent friends. There are 100 whites and 700 negroes remaining in Brownsville, Tenn., and the negroes are boisterous and insolent, boasting that they will do nothing, and will compel the whites to furnish them food. Three imported cases have appeared in Nashville, one of them being a student at Fisk University, who is in a critical condition. In a street in New Orleans forty-three Chinese laborers, failing to get work on a rice plantation, because of the owner's alarm from the fever, were found huddled together in a starving condition. About 250 refugees have arrived in Chicago during the past ten days. Large numbers of people have gone through to points in Wisconsin and Minnesota. Miss Kate Coffman, who was called the belle of Grenada, and "the most beautiful woman in the South," is among the dead, her father and mother having died also.

The matter of the recent action of the Republican District Executive Committee for the Fourth Congressional District, having been brought to the attention of the Committee by Gen. W. D. Jones, it was discussed at length; when,

On motion of Mr. Goines, a committee of three on resolutions, consisting of Messrs. H. T. Jones, Jas. H. Jones and J. P. H. Adams, was appointed. After retirement, the committee submitted the following report:

WHEREAS, the undersigned having been appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the committee, they beg leave to submit the following report:

At a meeting of the committee on reorganization of the Republican party of Wake county, which met at Metropolitan Hall, in the city of Raleigh, on Saturday, September 14th, 1878, composed of one representative from each township in said county and one from the several wards in the city of Raleigh, after transacting the business assigned them by the late county convention, finding that the action of the District Executive Committee of this Congressional District in recommending to the Republicans of the district to vote for Josiah Turner, a Democrat, and failing to call a convention (as we feel they ought to have done in the interest of the party) has caused wide-spread dissatisfaction among the mass of Republicans in the county of Wake; and feeling that there is a bright prospect of electing a true and tried Republican, and secure the future unity and prosperity of the party, the only recourse of the mass of Republicans, under existing circumstances, is an appeal to a mass convention therefore,

1 Be it Resolved, That, disavowing any intention to reflect upon the motives of any member of said committee, we recommend to the Republicans of the several counties composing the 4th Congressional District to meet us at Metropolitan Hall, in the city of Raleigh, in mass convention, on Tuesday, the first day of October next, at 12 m, for the purpose of nominating a Republican candidate for a seat in the House of Representatives of the 46th Congress.

2. That the Republicans of the county of Wake are requested to meet us in mass convention, at Metropolitan Hall, in the city of Raleigh, on Saturday, the 21st day of September, A. D. 1878, at 12 m. to consult in regard to the general interest of the party in the coming Congressional election, and especially in regard to the District Convention aforesaid.

The question being upon the adoption of the report of the committee, it was adopted, with only two dissenting voices.

On motion, the committee adjourned sine die.

The Next State Fair.

Donations to the N. C. Agricultural Society, for the Premium List of the 18th Annual Fair, October 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19 next, at Raleigh, N. C.

(Acknowledged by C. B. Denson, Secretary, in behalf of the Executive Committee.)

One half ton "Excellenza" guano, $25.00; one half ton "Planter's Favorite" guano, $22.50, and two barrels Long's prepared chemicals, $17.00; total value $64 50, given by Messrs. John R. Long & Co., of Baltimore, Md., through Messrs. Kelly, Purefoy & Brewer, general commission merchants, Adams building, Martin street, Raleigh.

It is especially gratifying to acknowledge the receipt of a donation of such great practical value to farmers. It is a high testimonial of the Excelenza Cotton Fertilizer, that Dr. Ledoux reports its commercial value at a higher rate than the price actually charged for it. This energetic firm sold 350 tons last season, we are informed, besides 1000 barrels of chemicals. Two barrels, the amount of the donation given above, will prepare a ton of compost.

One fine Meerschaum Cigar Holder, $12.00, given by J. M. Mendel & Co., of this city. This house manufactures in North Carolina, and have an establishment in Charlotte. They will make a beautiful display at the Fair.

We copy the letter below as the readiest means of explaining the liberal and thoughtful gift of Dr. Thos. W. Harris, of Chapel Hill.

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA,
CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Sept. 11, '78.

Capt. C. B. Denson, Secretary of the North Carolina Agricultural Fair:

Will you be good enough to announce that I will give a scholarship for one year in my medical school at this place, as a premium for the best collection of plants growing in North Carolina, whether indigenous or cultivated, the collection to be the property of the State Fair. Every plant should be represented by the leaf, a part of the stalk (or all of it,) the root and the flower, if it can be obtained. The name and habital of each plant should be given.

The scholarship is worth $40.00, and can be transferred to any one who wishes to avail himself of it. A student winning this premium can make use of it this year, entering on his studies at once, and preparing himself for entry at a medical college next year.

I am sorry that I did not think to offer this premium sooner. As the time for the collection is so short, I would thank you to have the offer made known as widely and as rapidly as practicable.

My heart is with you at the Fair.

The Standard of Excellence.

Bread is the staff of life, and is used in every household. Yet how few have the judgment to make such a selection of flour as will make bread white, pure, tempting. Cheapness in this staple food is nearly always coupled with impurity, and brands without name or reputation are passed off upon the unsuspecting as of superior quality. The idea in purchasing this article is to get it at a place where its quality is guaranteed. This is done, and it may be had in any quantity at the store of W. H. Dodd, corner Wilmington and Martin streets. *

An Undeniable Truth.

You deserve to suffer, and if you lead a miserable unsatisfactory life in this beautiful world, it is entirely your own fault and there is only one excuse for you,—your unreasonable prejudice and skepticism, which has killed thousands. Personal knowledge and common sense reasoning will soon show you that Green's August Flower will cure you of Liver Complaint, or Dyspepsia, with all its miserable effects, such as sick headache, palpitation of the heart, sour stomach, habitual costiveness, dizziness of the head, nervous prostration, low spirits, &c. Its sales now reach every town on the Western Continent and not a druggist but will tell you of its wonderful cures. You can buy a sample bottle for ten cents. Live and Dead Issues---Live and Dead Men.

We are in the midst of stirring times, when vital and absorbing issues are forcing themselves upon public consideration and attention. The financial blunders and crimes that have marked the legislation of Congress for the past twelve years, up to the period of Democratic ascendancy in the National House of Representatives, have wrought their legitimate results of industrial depression and want of confidence. The contest, long slumbering, because held in check by corporate wealth and monopolistic power, between the people and the oligarchs, has now assumed proportions which cannot be ignored. Incidental to this conflict, the clamor for a strong government to suppress and repress the struggle of the masses to assert their rights and equal privileges under a democratic system is raised by the moneyed aristocracy of the country and the advocates of despotic ideas,—a clamor that, echoing along the distances, settles into a demand for GRANT as the imperial Dictator of the destinies of the country. In such an issue the people of the South have a vital interest. The victims for many years of cruel and despotic oppression, of robbery and spoliation under the authority and sanction of iron rule, they are called to confront exigencies which involve their dearest rights and highest liberties. Blind and infatuated are they, if they do not appreciate the emergency.

What we have to say, at present, in this connection, is more immediately addressed to the people of the Fourth Congressional District. The Democratic party of the District have re-nominated for Congress a gentleman whose whole record has shown him to be keenly alive to the sufferings of the people and the wants of his constituents. He has voted in all instances to check the power of the monopolists and money-lords and to ameliorate the condition of the masses by furnishing them employment and a currency adapted to their needs. In all matters immediately affecting the local and personal concerns of his constituency, he has shown himself to be an earnest and indefatigable friend. He is at present engaged in canvassing the District, and, in an able, high-toned and statesmanlike manner, discussing the paramount political topics of the hour, and giving to the people timely counsel and useful information. In one word, he is prosecuting the campaign in a manner worthy of a dignified, prudent and honest Representative of the people.

On the other hand, the manner in which Josiah Turner, the Radical candidate for Congress, endorsed as such by the Executive Committee of the party, is conducting the campaign, would have been more applicable fifteen years ago than it is to-day. He seems to live solely in the remote past, and has, apparently, no more appreciation of the live and exigent issues of the day than an Egyptian mummy embalmed three thousand years ago. He doesn't even go so far as to intimate where all that additional "money" is to come from which the bossing proxies promised, in their recent platform endorsing him, as likely to flow from his election. He talks about "Union" and "Secession," and "Hawkins," and "Heck," and "Bill Smith," and "Buford," and endeavors to stir up old personal and political prejudices, as though the people were a set of dolts who, like himself, lived altogether in the stern of the ship looking only on the track that it leave, behind and never upon the surrounding waters or the prospect or the dangers ahead. Such a man, inspired by such thoughts and feelings, with such unworthy conceptions of the province of an American legislator, with such narrow information upon engrossing matters of public policy, is unfit for a place in our national councils, would be absolutely useless in such a capacity and could reflect no credit upon those who delegated him.

But in one repect such a man might be very dangerous, if elected. Endorsed by those whom we believe to have been the worst enemies of the people, and bitterly hating the Democratic party, which, according to the platform of the bosses, has "persecuted" him, has feelings of vindictiveness would lead him into extremes of antagonism to that party upon whose supremacy in the government depends, as surely as that effect follows cause, the only security and welfare of the PEOPLE and the life and stability of free institutions and civil government!

The Department of Agriculture

We make acknowledgements for the regular receipt of the valuable Monthly Crop Reports issued from our State Agricultural Bureau. Unfortunately, we have no capacity, ourselves, for passing judgment upon matters affecting our agricultural interests or catering to the special tastes of those of our readers who are tillers of the soil. We do know, however, that this class of our population constitutes the very basis and bulwark of the country's moral and material power, and that it comprise an intelligent yeomanry, who, from the very circumstances of their peaceful and honorable vocation, are uniformerly conservative, law-abiding citizens, interested in the preservation of good government and in economical development. We hail, therefore, as a most valuable adjunct to the cause of material, moral, political and social prosperity, every agency that looks to the encouragement of agricultural enterprise and to the diffusion of information bearing on its improvement and advancement. Such an auxiliary the Department of Agriculture undoubtedly is, and it deserves to be still further fostered by the State. Under its present most efficient and intelligent administration, it has accomplished a vast amount of good, and yet it may be said to have but laid the foundations of future and growing usefulness. That these foundations have been well and judiciously laid, we have every assurance and belief.

The New York Tribune is in a terrible frame of mind. It is one of those papers which, like the head of the Vipont family, in "Bleak House," sees a "crisis" in every shifting change in politics. Just now it is exercised to a frightful degree over the result of the Maine election. It sees, in the outcropping consequences, innumerable and awful national dangers. It is a source of congratulation, however, that the result in question has had the effect of changing the Tribune's mood towards the South. The "solid South" was its "peril" and its "crisis" before the voice of Maine was heard; now it's sensitive soul is wrung at the prospect of a "blighted public faith,"—which, by the way, is simply one of its euphemisms for expressing the apprehensions of the bondholders and money-kings. Hear it:

"The Republican party can live no longer by dwelling on the past. Indeed, its most sacred duty to the brave men who gave life for the Union is to see that the Union shall not be dishonored. Its most sacred duty to the dusky millions who became by emancipation wards of the Union is to see that they shall not be robbed by false money, and forced into a condition little better than slavery by the destructive warfare waged against capital. The duty of that party to the country is to hold sacred all pledges of the public faith, and to count any man its deadly foe who would barter off one of those pledges, or neglect one, for any office on earth."

If the present anxiety of the Tribune lest "the dusky millions," who have become "wards of the nation," shall be "robbed by false money," had been more effectively exhibited, a few years back, when the same dusky dupes were "robbed" by that model Radical institution, the Freedman's Bank, it would have been better for them and better for the cause of common honesty.

What will be the mental condition of the Tribune when it reads the article from the negro organ at Washington, the People's Advocate, urging the colored people, the dusky wards aforesaid, to ally themselves with the "National" party, in order to defeat the Democracy? We tremble for the effect of the revelation. For, mind you, the Tribune—and therein it exhibits method in its madness,—sees no essential difference between the Greenbackers and the Democracy on the great issues affecting the National Currency. That paper has yet to learn, however, that, in nine cases out of ten, the men who call themselves Nationals at the South are mainly Radicals disguised for a purpose or men of prurient ambition, without principle, who think they see office at the end of the name. The Democracy are abundantly satisfied with their financial record and the masses of the people will endorse it.

The dissatisfaction of a large number of Republicans with the candidate of the proxies and substitutes grows apace. The bosses, however, appear to have "carried the day" [to use a Hibernicism,] at the indignation meeting the other night. True it is, therefore, that Josiah Turner has been virtually "ratified" by a Radical meeting and that the endorsers have been, to a certain extent, endorsed; and yet that meeting was packed, so it is said, against Bledsoe and others, just as much as the committee was packed against them. The discontented and indignant, nevertheless, embraced the opportunity to express themselves in no measured terms and to give the bossing proxies some hard licks. Magnin vs Young and Caswell vs Badger are said to have been rich specimens of Radical rhetoric.

"Oh! how delightful it is to see Brethren dwell in unity."

A call has been issued for a Convertion of "all who are opposed to the Hon. Walter L. Steele, whether Nationals or otherwise," to nominate a candidate for Congress in the Sixth District. The leading spirit of the movement is said to be Wm. M. Coleman, of Cabarrus, who was Attorney General under Holden's administration, and who was, at that time, the recipient of some of Jo Turner's choicest epithets. Col. Steele can afford to smile at all such opposition so long as his admirable course in Congress commands, a sit does, the endorsement of the great mass of the good people of his District.

Mr. R. C. Badger is quoted as having said, in the Radical wrangle on Friday night, that the object of the Committee, in endorsing Turner, was "to pulverize the damnable Democracy." Of course it was, and Josiah, the Purifier, accepts the new role of Pulverizer. The Democrats of this District however, propose to have a say as to the pulverizing process.

Some Democratic newspapers seem to think that Eugene Hale's chief short coming is that he is a son-in-law of Zach Chandler. This is a mistake. Hale is, himself, the personification of a narrow, unscrupulous and mean partisan. In all detesatble points he can double discount both Chandler and Blaine, with a yard-dog or two thrown in.

In view of the election in Maine, the Norfolk Virginian is induced to press the invitation upon Mr. Blaine to make those promised speechees in Virginia and North Carolina. In the language of the cabman to Mr. Pickwick, it begs him to "come on," and we second the motion.

An error crept in the "make up" of the News, on yesterday, by which two editorial articles on entirely different subjects were left without the proper division line between them. We hope that the intelligent reader made the necessary mental line of division.

The New York Tribune speaks of Josiah Turner as "the Republican candidate for Congress in the Fourth (N. C.) District." Exactly so.

The Ladies' Bazaar in Charlotte, for the relief of the yellow fever sufferers, realized the handsome sum of $841.

Gen. J. M. Leach has accepted an invitation to speak at a grand rally of the South Carolina Democrats, at Yorkville.

BEAUTY: OR THE
Secret of a Fair Face
AN ITEM OF INTREST TO EVERY LADY WHO DESIRES TO BE MORE BEAUTIFUL THAN SHE NOW IS.
Unfortunately not one woman in a hundred, subjected to the whims of an American climate possesses that basis and starting point of real beauty—a pure and clear complexion.
What nature has thus denied, art must be called upon to furnish.
It can be done; it is done daily. Prof. W. E. Hagan placed beauty within the reach of every unblessed daughter of Eve when he discovered that surprising article known in fashionable circles as the true secret of beauty, and called
MAGNOLIA BALM
The MAGNOLIA BALM is a sure device for creating a pure and blooming complexion.
It conceals all natural blemishes in the most surprising and effective manner.
It removes all roughness eruptions, redness blotches, freckles, and tan with magical power.
It drives away all evidences of fatigue and excitement.
It makes the plainest face beautiful.
It gives the complexion a dazzling purity and makes the neck, face, and arms appear graceful, rotund, and plump.
It makes a matron of 35 or 40 look not more than 20 years old, and changes the rustic maiden into a cultivated city belle.
The Magnolia Balm removes all blemishes and conceals every drawback to beauty; and while it is as harmless as water, it is so lifelike in its effects that the closest observer cannot detect its use.
Ladies who want to make themselves attractive can make an absolute certainty of it by using HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM, and we know of no other way. It is the cheapest preparation in the world, all things considered, and may be had at any drug stors

EATON & BURNETT'S BUSINESS COLLEGE, Northeast Corner of Baltimore and Charles Streets, offers unsurpassed facilities for preparing Young Men for business. The principals have had large experience as Educators, and will spare no pains to maintain the high character and standing of this institution as a business-training School. The Penmanship Department is in charge of E. Burnett, who was sole Penman of the Bryant & Stratton College from its foundation in 1864 to May, 1878, and of whom Mr. Sadler, principal, in his Catalogue of 1877-78, says: "Prof. E. Burnett is the best teacher of Penmanship in the country, is absolutely without a peer in the practice of his art, and without a rival in his extraordinary facility in imparting it." He is an accomplished and accurate accountant."
A. H. Eaton is a member of the Baltimore bar, and students here possess superior advantages through Lectures and personal instruction upon the transactions as they arise relating to Commercial Law. For particulars call for Circular or address,

Is something entirely new and novel in the feed cutter line. With this cutter the feed is cut off diagonally, instead of square across, as is the case with all other cutters. at the same time our cutter has a draw cut, acting exactly on the same principle that a knife is used is cutting off a stick, consequently with our Diagonal Feed Cutter we can cut more feed with less labor in a given time than any other cutter costing twice as much.

——Mr. C. E Johnson made a shipment of fifty bales of new cotton yesterday.

——A number of the lawyers of this city returned from Warren court yesterday.

——About a dozen matrimonial matches are arranged for the next two months.

——There is every probability of an early frost, and also of an unusually severe winter.

——A letter bearing no stamp, addressed to Dr. M. Moore, Marion, N. C., is held at the post office.

——Politics have once again become the prominent subject of street talk. The triangular campaign gives promise of affording everybody amusement for some time to come.

——There is such an exhibition of unity and brotherhood among the radicals hereabouts as will draw tears from emotional people. The Turner and anti-Turner wings of the party make things very pleasant for each other.

The Temperature.

Temperature yesterday, as indicated by the thermometer at Tucker's store:

6 a. m.,	63°	2 p. m.,	75°
10 "	69°	6 "	72°

Y Not Before.

Travellers will be glad to know that the "Y" on the Western North Carolina road will soon be a thing of the past, and the road changed so as to run directly by Newton. Work is being done by convict labor.

Requisition.

Gov. Vance yesterday made requisition on the Governor of Virginia for one W. H. Ham, white, a fugitive from justice, who is now in jail at Independence, Grayson county. He is wanted by the authorities of Alleghany county.

Educational Notes.

The school committee of Cary Township have purchased the Olive building in the town of Cary, and it will hereafter be used as a public school. Mr. W. L. Crocker, an experienced educator, will be in charge.

For the Penitentiary.

Deputy Sheriff A. L. McDowell, of Richmond county, brought down yesterday John Brown, a negro guilty of larceny and receiving, and sentenced to 2 years' imprisonment.

In order that the citizens may have some idea of the number of pupils in the graded school, Capt. Dugger will have a parade of the scholars this week, up Fayetteville street to the capitol square. The parade will take place in the afternoon.

Will Challenge Them.

The Victor Fire Company will send the Neptune, of Charlotte, a challenge and invitation to come down next month and try their skill with the apparatus. The intend to make things both pleasant and lively for the visitors.

Mayor's Court.

Justice W. D. Haywood presided yesterday. The only offenders up for trial were William Mayo and Walter Mitchell, colored, who were disorderly in Metropolitan Hall during the dime party of Friday evening. They were each fined $5 and costs.

Cotton.

Owing to the continued wet weather, the receipts of new cotton have been light, until yesterday, when thirty-five bales were received. The grade is not as good as usual for "first pickings." This is also caused by the rains. With a few days of sun-shine large receipts and better quality may be expected. Market yesterday, 10 and 10¼.

Abstract of Taxes.

The following abstract of listed taxables was yesterday received by the State Auditor:

Union county, through C. A. Simpson, Register of Deeds, reports:

General Taxes,	$2,935.42
Special "	3,002.13
School "	4,238.65
County "	23,961.06

Market Report.

Mr. C. B. Fowler, Keeper of the Market, reports the following as having been exposed for sale during the past week: Beeves, 78; hogs, 48; sheep, 82; bunches fish, 280. Wake Criminal Court.

Court met at 10 o'clock, yesterday, His Honor, Judge George V. Strong, presiding. The entire day was occupied in the case of the State vs. Parrish, larceny. Able speeches were made by Messrs. Fowle, Snow, Pace and Devereux for the prosecution, and Messrs. Lewis, Argo and Badger, for the defense.

Court adjourned until Monday at ten o'clock.

The Best Oysters.

That gallant gentleman and soldier, Gen. L. S. Baker, has been in this city for a day or two, as agent of the largest and best oyster-shipping house of Suffolk,—that of Britt, Riddick & Co. They deal in all grades, including the most noted for flavor and fine eating, and ship in clean buckets and kegs. Dealers in this State cannot do better than to address Gen. Baker, at Suffolk, with a certainty of satisfaction.

False Reports.

A letter was yesterday received by the principal of one of the schools, wherein a statement was made that a report was current that scarlet fever was raging in Raleigh, and that parents were afraid to send their children to the schools. How these reports gain currency can't be imagined, for they are without foundation. So far as known there is not a case of scarlet fever in the city, and not one of diptheria. The health of the people was never better than at present.

Revenue Collections.

The collections at the Office of Col. I. J. Young, collector of this District, for the week past were as follows:

Mr. Crawford Futrel, residing near Goldsboro, who was so badly injured by the ruins of his house, which was torn to pieces by the tornado of Friday morning, died yesterday. His leg was so broken as to necessitate amputation, and by reason of weakness he could not survive.

Later accounts of the disaster state the power of the wind was greater than would be believed. It blew two hundred chickens through the air, and utterly stripped them of feathere. A large and heavy iron pot was blown 150 yards.

Personals.

Governor Vance arrived yesterday, to attend the meeting of the Trustees of the University.

D B Avera, Esq., returned from his trip north yesterday.

Messrs. J B Hill, L G Bagley and Donald Bain returned yesterday from a visit to Beaufort. They report the season as having almost ended. Some Raleigh folks are left. A party leaves here for the seaside on Monday.

Hon. Jos. J. Davis arrived last evening, and is at the Yarbrough. He leaves Monday morning for Apex.

Mr. L. H. Adams, one of the representative business men of this city, leaves on a business trip north, Monday morning.

Mr. J. H. Sultan, a prominent wholesale dealer in cigars and tobacco, at Newbern, N. C., is in the city, registered at the Yarbrough House.

For the Sufferers.

Still the noble work of aiding the sufferers by the terrible fever goes bravely on. Charlotte's contribution to the fund, thus far, amounts to $1,578.09.

It is stated that the ladies there do not intend to stop with this. A proposition has been made to give another entertainment consisting of theatricals, music, etc., and this will doubtless be arranged for next week.

The students of Wake Forest College yesterday sent Gov. Vance $11.57, which amount was at once forwarded to the Howard Relief Association.

The citizens of Salem, through T. R. Purnell, Esq., yesterday sent Gov. Vance $300 for the relief of the suffering. Of this amount the Governor sent $100 each to Memphis and New Orleans, and $50 each to Vicksburg and Grenada.

Messrs. W. T. Blacknall & Co., of Durham, sent through the Raleigh National Bank, $25 to Memphis.

The Congressional Campaign.

At Panther Branch on Friday the attendance was small. Mr. Bledsoe was not present. Mr. Davis spoke conversationally to those present. He was listened to attentively and his words fell on appreciative ears.

At Franklin's yesterday there were but few in attendance. Both Mr. Davis and Maj. Bledsoe spoke. The impression made by the speech of the former was such as to assure all that Swift Creek is all right. for Davis.

The State University.

The Board of Trustees, His Honor Gov. Vance, President ex officio, Messrs. P. C. Cameron, Geo. V. Strong, W. L. Saunders, met yesterday at the Executive office. President Battle was present by invitation. A good deal of business, principally details of college management, was transacted.

Military Gossip.

The Durham Light Infantry has been armed with breech loading rifles. The company is a fine one and is making good progress in its preparation for the Encampment.

Changes of Schedule.

In the advertising columns will be found notices of changes of schedule on the 16th inst., on the R. & G., and R. & A. Railways. The R. & G. mail will leave at 10:30 a. m., the passenger train on the R. & A. at 6 a. m.

Picking Up.

The great way to buy goods cheap in New York now is to be on hand at all the large sales. It is for this reason that Law's China and Silver Warehouse is the great headquarters for all goods in their line. We make it a point to have an agent always in New York, looking for best goods at lowest prices. *

Cotton.

The receipts of cotton in Raleigh are rapidly increasing, and their growth is due to the energy and judgment exercised by commission merchants. Messrs. A. C. Sanders & Co. have been in the commission business, and are known as prompt and reliable commission merchants, who do only a commission business. Their charges are as low as any. *

The Congressional Contest!

The next session of the 45th Congress in all probability will pass a law that all men having a fine taste and are fond of one of the luxuries of life, will go to the Capitol Cigar Store, opposite the Postoffice, where they will find cigars and tobacco of various brands at the lowest prices. Cigarettes, cigarette papers, and smokers' articles, together with polite attention to all these patrons. We have the sole agency for the "Sitting Bull" smoking tobacco, manufactured by E. H. Pogue, Hillsboro, N. C., of which we are making large sales, being superior to any other smoking tobacco. Sold in quantities at manufacturer's prices.

Wonderful Reports.

The remedy for dyspepsia, &c., advertised in another column, as Dr. D'Armstadt's Dyspeptic Drops, is making a reputation throughout the country, as the greatest medicine to cure that terrible disease ever covered. The proprietor is receiving thousands of certificates weekly from all over the country, attesting the great merit of this remedy, and some of the most remarkable cures ever made. Those suffering should not hesitate a moment, but get a bottle and give them a trial. *

Encouragement for the Feeble.

So long as the failing embers of vitality are capable of being re-kindled into a warm and genial glow, just so long there is hope for the weak and emaciated invalid. Let him not, therefore, despond, but derive encouragement from this and from the further fact that there is a restorative most potent in renewing the dilapidated powers of a broken down system. Yes, thanks to its unexampled tonic virtues, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is daily reviving strength in the bodies and hope in the minds of the feeble and nervous. Appetite, refreshing sleep, the acquisition of flesh and color, are blessings attendant upon the reparative processes which this priceless invigorant speedily initiates and carries to a successful conclusion. Digestion is restored, the blood fertilized and sustenance afforded to each life sustaining organ by the Bitters, which is inoffensive even to the feminine palate, vegetable in composition, and thoroughly safe. Use it and regian vigor! sept 10-d6tw1t

HOME REMEDY.

THE MOST WONDERFUL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE!

A CERTAIN AND SPEEDY CURE FOR SCROFULA.

FACTS ARE STUBBORN THINGS!

My receipt for the cure of Scrofula has been tried by me with the most unprecedented success for the last twelve years, and I have no hesitation in recommending it as a sovereign cure for that disease and as a general Tonic and Blood Purifier, it is everywhere giving perfect satisfaction. While my experience with it is too limited for me to specially recommend it for other diseases, I believe it will ultimately prove to be of benefit in all cases arising from impurity of the blood, and probably for other diseases.

FAYETTEVILLE, N, C., Aug. 12, 1878.

MRS. JOE PERSON

Dear Madam, I have been using your Remedy for Scrofula over five months as an experiment for cancer. The cancer is of long standing, the Doctors have been treating it, more or less, for twelve years, it has taken off my upper lip and a good part of my nose. When I began to use your Remedy it was growing rapidly worse, but the medicine appeared to check it very soon, and it has not made much progress since, except about two months ago, the medicine gave out, and I was without several days. It then seemed to start anew, and grew worse very fast, until I had taken the medicine about a week, since then it has not changed much. I think if I could have had the medicine soon enough, it would have cured me.

For more than a year before using your medicine, I was troubled very much with a disease of the heart, an irregularity in its action. It would miss every third beat for hours, then at other times it would increase in its action, and run up to 200 beats per minute. Since using your medicine I am almost entirely relieved of this. rarely feel it, and then not enough to speak of it. I would recommend any one suffering with heart disease to try your medicine. As a Tonic and Alterative, I do not think it has any superior. I have been using all the most powerful Alteratives known to the medical profession for the last 12 years, and I know of none superior to this. I think your medicine is destined to be a great blessing to the afflicted. Let every one that needs a Tonic or an Alterative give it a trial, and I do not think they will be disappointed.

Very truly and Respectfully,
JOHN BUIE, Box 141.

IT NEVER FAILS AND ALWAYS PLEASES THE CONSUMER.
IT IS THE PERFECTION OF SCIENCE IN COOKERY.
IT IS A COMFORT FOR EVERY HOME.

YOUR FOOD WILL BE THE BEST.
YOUR BREAD WILL BE WHITER AND RICHER.
YOUR HEALTH WILL BE PRESERVED BY ITS PURITY.

WARRANTED TO KEEP IN ANY CLIMATE

We do most earnestly caution consumers of Baking Powder against using adulterated and cheap goods, as no good and pure Baking Powder can be sold for less than ours.

An analysis of the cheap clap-trap spurious adulterated goods called Baking Powder, would startle the community of consumers beyond precedence, as most of it is not fit for use, and would not be allowed to be sold were the laws enforced; yet goods of this kind are manufactured and sold by dealers because offered cheap by unscrupulous manufacturers. We caution those who value health, and appreciate good, wholesome living to buy only Pure Baking Powder. Jones' Unrivaled is such. It is an established article throughout the West and South, and is recommended by the highest authority for Purity and Strength.

All first-class storekeepers have it because it is pure and can be relied upon, and is a credit to their stock.

Merchants are authorized to warrant our goods where directions are followed

Our statements are correct and are backed by chemists of note and experience, and we hold ourselves ready to prove our assertions.

We are offering goods of undoubted purity, which are in their compounding, as we claim "UNRIVALED."
